

Write Your Own EdVenture™ #3—Australia Day

On 25 January, Ed travelled from Hobart to Alice Springs by	-ing verb all the way. He had heard rumours that a new kind of	Noun had been found in the desert. So, he put down his	Noun which he had carried with him, and started to dig the dirt with his	Plural noun
After a short while, Ed yelled	Interjection
Ed had just found a new kind of	Noun
It wasn't what Ed expected, but he still	Past tense verb for joy. Exhausted, Ed took a nap under a(n)	Noun
His radio alarm clock woke Ed the next morning. Ed heard a(n)	Adjective radio announcer say that Ed was Australian of the Year! Ed saw a	Noun fly overhead. He vowed his next adventure would be in space...

Fold along this line to hide the story

To be continued ...

- Offline instructions—
- ✦ Print this page
 - ✦ Fold the page back along the line to hide the story
 - ✦ Fill the boxes with the right type of word
 - ✦ Unfold the page and read the story

- Online instructions—
- ✦ Fill the boxes with the right type of word (without looking at the story)
 - ✦ When you've filled the last box, read the story