

Write Your Own EdVenture™ #6—Ed's Easter Parade

In 4007, Easter was called	Free choice
To celebrate, you paraded around with a(n)	Noun on your head. Ed entered the parade. His entry was	Adjective and	Adjective
with	Plural noun sprinkled on the front. When the parade was over, Ed	-ed verb with the judges. He went backstage, where all the entrants were	-ing verb
The crowd yelled	Exclamation when Ed was announced the winner. Surprised, Ed	-ed verb with the person standing next to him. Ed waited	Adverb to hear about his prize. Ed had won a trip back in time to 1915!

Fold along this line to hide the story

To be continued ...

Offline instructions—

- ✦ Print this page
- ✦ Fold the page back along the line to hide the story
- ✦ Fill the boxes with the right type of word
- ✦ Unfold the page and read the story

Online instructions—

- ✦ Fill the boxes with the right type of word (without looking at the story)
- ✦ When you've filled the last box, read the story