

Write Your Own EdVenture™ #2—The Fishing Trip

It was a dark and _____ Adjective

December night. Ed had decided to take his fishing trawler, “The _____ Adjective

_____ Noun

_____ Plural noun

out to sea. He was bringing in a good haul of _____ Adjective

_____ Noun

when, suddenly, Ed saw a(n) _____ Noun

yacht. The yacht nearly crashed into him. A(n) _____ Noun

_____ -ing verb

fell off the yacht and landed on Ed’s _____ Plural noun

Ed fell unconscious. His boat kept sailing. Ed was dreaming of _____ -ing verb

_____ Plural noun

when Ed awoke. He was waken by the chants of a(n) _____ -ing verb crowd. Ed had just won the Sydney-to-Hobart yacht race.

_____ Plural noun

Fold along this line to hide the story

To be continued ...

Offline instructions—

- Print this page
- Fold the page back along the line to hide the story
- Fill the boxes with the right type of word
- Unfold the page and read the story

Online instructions—

- Fill the boxes with the right type of word (without looking at the story)
- When you’ve filled the last box, read the story